

Trent Junker

Martial Arts Bio

I've always had great interest in Martial Arts, training with family friends, friends, etc as a child. In May of 1991 I began training in Sukunaihayashi Shorin-Ryu, Seibukan Club, under Sensei Robert Ross. I began assisting Sensei Ross with classes very soon after joining. During this period, I also started training in Boxing with Coach Ray Faulke, at the Mt. Scott Community Center, where my Karate classes were held.

In May of 1992 I began my training in Chu'an Fa Kajukenbo, under Sifu Sid Lopez. I received my first Black Belt in 1996. In 2002 I began training with Sifu Dave Huffaker of Emperado Method Kajukenbo. I received my 3rd Degree Black Belt under Sifu Dave Huffaker (7th Degree Black Belt) of Emperado Method Kajukenbo on April 10, 2004.

Over the next few years, Sifu Huffaker was transitioning his instruction away from Kajukenbo and more in line with Chinese Healing Arts (he was a licensed acupuncturist and herbalist also). Due to my desire to continue training and learning, he encouraged me to seek out a better path for my Kajukenbo future. On July 7th, 2005, at Kajukenbo Self Defense Institute annual Seminar/Tournament in Vallejo, California I met with Grandmaster Gerry Scott (Professor). We discussed my desire to continue my Kajukenbo training and my situation extensively. I have been under the direction of GM Scott from 2005 to the present. GM Scott has guided me with his extensive knowledge and experience in the martial arts. I have received my 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th degree black belts under the banner of Scott Martial Academy, and on December 31st, 2016, GM Scott promoted me to Associate Professor 8th Degree Black Belt.

The classes I have taught cover many aspects of Martial Training, including but not limited to, physical fitness, understanding of principles, self defense, confidence, and physical prowess. I also teach effective techniques and principles for multiple ranges of attack – ground fighting, Jujitsu (locks, throws and controlling techniques), elbows & knees, hand strikes, kicking and sticks/knives.

I have hosted the “NW Kajukenbo Family Seminar”, here in the Portland area, annually since 2007, through 2016, with great success. In 2009 I began hosting the “Martial Arts Enhancement Seminar” annually, until 2015. I also consistently teach seminars and have hosted many other seminars on various Martial topics.

I design and sell various Kajukenbo (and other Martial Arts) apparel, jewelry, etc. – including shirts, sweatpants, rings, hats, necklaces, beanies, tabi shoes, and more.

There are many other activities that I have been involved in, but in the interest of simplicity, it is mostly labeled out in the following tables.
